

Triangle Insight Meditation Community

October 2016

triangleinsight.org

Greetings to all!

On occasion we will suspend our ongoing discussion of aspects of the Buddha's teachings (Dhamma), with this month being one of those occasions. For those of you who have been attending our regular Wednesday evening meetings, you are likely aware of some changes at Triangle Insight that were announced recently at our Seventh Birthday Celebration. For those of you unaware, we wanted to let you know and are dedicating this space to a special announcement about which we are very excited.

Scott Bryce has been a guest teacher at Triangle Insight since January 2016, and as of July, he graciously accepted our invitation to join our Teacher's Council and become a regular monthly teacher and member of the Board of Directors. We have known Scott for many years, both in the community and on retreats together, as well as being members of a sutta study group in which we all participated. When exploring our wish for adding another teacher, Scott naturally came to mind.

For those who may not know Scott, he has been a psychotherapist and Buddhist practitioner since 1995, and he continues to explore how these two practices intersect. Several of his guest appearances at Triangle Insight have addressed this very topic. Previous to becoming involved with Triangle Insight, he served for a number of years as a practice leader with the Eno River Buddhist Community. His principal meditation practices have been Insight Meditation, Insight Dialogue, and Concentration. In addition, he has found great benefit and meaning in sutta study, the precepts, and the five daily reflections. Some of the teachers toward whom he feels particular gratitude are Ayya Sobhana, DaeJa Napier, Gloria Taraniya Ambrosia, Greg Scharf, Greg Kramer, and Leigh Brasington. He also is grateful for Southern Dharma Retreat Center here in North Carolina, and for the study and retreat centers located in Barre, Massachusetts.

And for those of us who have heard Scott speak at our Wednesday evening meetings, there should be no question as to his qualifications. His recent talk on September 21st, where he formally stepped into his new role within the sangha, was yet another example of his warmth, humor, sincerity, thoughtfulness, and skillfulness. He embraced the challenge of providing a formal introduction of his "self" to the sangha by weaving in both his personal life and other experiences in the context of his understanding of the Dhamma. And cognizant of our ongoing efforts to address issues of systemic racial injustice and inequality, along with the lack of diversity in our own community, he expressed his commitment to join us in this effort, closing his talk with a challenge for us all -- to wrestle with the problematic fact of his being a White male chosen by White individuals from a mostly White sangha which is embedded in a nation founded on systemic racism where being White and male has historically proven sufficient qualification for being chosen.

We not only want to welcome Scott into his new role within Triangle Insight, but to also express our appreciation to him for articulating this challenge and our willingness to meet it head on so as to move toward a deeper understanding and reconciliation of the problems at hand. As Einstein said, "The significant problems we face can not be solved at the same level of thinking we were at when we created them."

May we all open our hearts and minds as we embrace our journey toward transformation.
Phyllis Hicks, Cynthia Hughey, Jeanne van Gemert, and Ron Vereen

An Evening with Leigh Brasington on "The Progress of Insight"

In preparation for our weekend retreat with Leigh Brasington, please join us on Wednesday, October 6th, for the evening's talk with Leigh on The Progress of Insight. He will explore this map of how the spiritual path may unfold as one gets deeper and deeper insights. It comes from the Visuddhimagga but early traces of this map can be found in the suttas. In this talk we will discuss the details of this map as well as look at the early information found in the suttas. An outline of the Progress of Insight can be found as part of The Seven

Streams of Dependently Arising Phenomena Interacting Endlessly A Residential Retreat with Leigh Brasington

Friday, October 7th, 5:00 PM - Sunday, October 9th, 4:00 PM

Note: This retreat has filled, but if you would like to be placed on a wait list, please contact Leah at leah@triangleinsight.org

This retreat combines the two main elements of the Buddha's model of liberation: cultivating the meditative absorptions (jhanas), which lead to calm and clarity, and insight into the dependent co-origination (paticca-samuppada) of phenomena. In such a short time, no one should expect to actually learn the jhanas, but there will be plenty of opportunity to learn about them. And dependent co-origination is also such a broad topic that it cannot be covered in great detail, but this course will certainly serve as an introduction to the topic and to the deep implications of the teaching of dependent co-origination.

This course is suitable only for those participants who have an established meditation practice. Only a few spaces remain, so please go here to register. For more information contact Leah at leah@triangleinsight.org.

Leigh Brasington has been practicing meditation since 1985 and is the senior American teacher of the late Ven. Ayya Khema. Leigh began assisting the Ven. Ayya Khema in 1994, and was authorized to teach in 1997. He teaches throughout Europe and North America and is the author of the book, Right Concentration: A Practical Guide to the Jhanas. Find more about Leigh's teaching and schedule at his website: <http://leighb.com>.

Mindful Self-Compassion Workshop: An Eight-Week Course with half-day retreat Cornelia Kip Lee, MEd and Kristin Wade, MS, LMFT

Mindful Self-Compassion (MSC) combines the skills of mindfulness and compassion to enhance our capacity for emotional well being. Mindfulness helps us to open to and be present with difficult experiences--thoughts, emotions, and sensations. Self-compassion brings loving kindness to ourselves. Together, mindfulness and self-compassion comprise a state of warm, connected, presence during difficult moments in our lives.

The class combines experiential exercises, discussion, presentation and home practices, and includes an afternoon of mindfulness.

MSC was developed by Christopher Germer, PhD, a leader in the integration of mindfulness and psychotherapy, and Kristin Neff, PhD, a pioneering researcher in the field of self-compassion.

Cornelia Kip Lee, the instructor, is a public health training developer and writer who has studied and practiced meditation for 45 years, and mindfulness meditation for the past 18 years. This will be Cornelia's first time leading a MSC workshop, and the course is offered at a 50% discount.

Kristin Wade, MS, LMFT, will be assisting during the 8 weeks. Kristin is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist in private practice in Durham.

Media Night:

A Screening and Discussion of the PBS Program Being Mortal

Join us and be part of a national dialogue taking place that asks the question "Have you and your family had the tough conversations and planned ahead?" The documentary film Being Mortal delves into the hopes of patients and families facing terminal illness. The film investigates the practice of caring for the dying and explores the relationships between patients and their doctors. It follows a surgeon, Dr. Atul Gawande, as he shares stories from the people and families he encounters. When Dr. Gawande's own father gets cancer, his search for answers about how to best care for the dying becomes a personal quest.

After the screening, we will have a community dialogue about the issues raised in the film, and our reactions to them. Refreshments will be provided

Rev. angel Kyodo williams Sensei in Durham
for EMBRACE Power Awareness: A Third Way Training
(Embodied Race and Power Awareness)

"Love and justice are not two. Without inner change, there can be no outer change. Without collective change, no change matters."

- Rev. angel Kyodo williams

Triangle Insight will be partnering with other Buddhist groups in the area to host Rev. angel Kyodo williams Sensei, who will be bringing her message of "love and justice" to Durham for a public talk on Friday, Oct. 28, at Duke Memorial United Methodist Church, and a two-day workshop Saturday & Sunday, Oct. 29 & 30 at the Self-Help Credit Union.

Far from depending on mere altruism, the only real path to a true culture of welcoming & inclusivity is committing to your own wholeness. Rev. angel looks at the conventional wisdom of inclusivity then turns it on its head and returns "disruption" to its rightful place as an act of bravery. Abandoning "being good" as motivation and guilt as distraction, she points to uncovering our natural desire to be connected as the source of living and leading from the the heart.

In these weekend activities we explore the connection between personal and social transformation through the lens of race and power in the United States. Through practices of centering, contextualization, conversation and community, we prepare ourselves to recognize and disrupt limiting habit-patterns as a gateway to love and liberation -- of self and society. We learn to embody wholeness, reclaiming parts of ourselves that we may have cast away in seeking a sense of belonging. With daring, we can cultivate the internal resources to respond to our life and world, developing the resilience necessary to truly begin creating an enlightened society.

If you would like to volunteer to help out in some way, please do not hesitate to contact us at info@triangleinsight.org.

Rev. angel Kyodo williams Sensei has been called "the most intriguing African-American Buddhist" by Library Journal, and is an author, maverick spiritual teacher, master trainer and founder of the Center for Transformative Change. She has been bridging the worlds of personal transformation and justice since the publication of her critically-acclaimed book, Being Black: Zen and the Art of Living With Fearlessness and Grace. This book was hailed as "an act of love" by Pulitzer Prize winner Alice Walker and "a classic" by Buddhist teacher Jack Kornfield. Her newly released book is Radical Dharma: Talking Race, Love, and Liberation.

A Day of Silence

with Cynthia Hughey and Ron Vereen

Please join Cynthia and Ron for this Day of Practice that will consist predominantly of silent meditation. There will be periods of sitting and walking meditation with no guided instructions, although there will be an opportunity for a group interview to explore questions and experiences about the practice. This daylong is thus not recommended for those who are new to the practice of insight meditation. A period of guided mindful movement will be offered, and lunch will be a period of silent mindful eating meditation, so please bring a bag lunch (refrigeration and microwave available). Tea and snacks will be provided by Triangle Insight.

This Day of Silence is being offered free of charge, with donations accepted to cover expenses of using the facility and to support the study and practice of the teachers. In order to make the necessary preparations, we ask that you pre-register for this event. The Shramadana Project

A Volunteer Initiative of Triangle Insight

The Shramadana Project (SP) is a volunteer initiative of the Triangle Insight Meditation Community, organized to address some of the interests expressed within the sangha for connection beyond Wednesday meditation and for outreach to the community-at-large.

Mary Mudd, the current coordinator of the SP, is currently convening quarterly meetings of this group to explore ways to meet the needs of our growing sangha and to assess the group's interest in outreach to the community-at-large.

We encourage you to review the minutes of these meetings on the TI website page for the Shramadana Project where you will learn more about these worthwhile and exciting initiatives of the sangha. The next meeting is planned for July/August, so contact Mary Mudd if you would like to be notified of the exact date.

A group of us from Triangle Insight recently volunteered at the Piedmont Farm Animal Refuge in Chatham Co., where a door was hung, nails were pulled from recycled wood, fence posts were sunk, a tool shed was reorganized, and weeds were whacked. After several hours of rewarding work, we received a lovely tour of the facilities by Lenore Braford. We met the "more than humans," including the sheep, goats, turkeys and chickens that have all been taken in to live out the rest of their lives in peace and harmony with the wonderful humans who care for them and who also come to visit and help support them. We also devoured a delicious vegan chocolate cake made from scratch by Howard Staab! Please visit their website by clicking on the link above to learn more about the refuge and how you can donate your time and/or money .

Tired but happy volunteers!!

Several other ideas have begun to take shape:

1) COMMUNITY WORK. A list of community organizations, is available. Compiled by Barbara Shumannfang, who organized the above activity, these organizations are seeking volunteers to further their missions of nonviolence, racial and social equity, and supporting youth. The hope is this will be a way to connect us, both within the sangha and in the community, in a variety of volunteer efforts. If you know of other groups to add to this list, please send to Mary Mudd, and consider joining the SP group.

2) MEDIA NIGHT, powered by Gerri McGuire, Karen Ziegler, and Tom Howlett, will offer films and other media entertainment on a quarterly basis. Our "opening night" was held on April 15th with a documentary about the Black Power Movement in the 1960s and 70s. Our next film is Being Mortal scheduled for October 21st (see announcement above). If you know of a film you'd like to see with Dharma friends, contact Gerri

McGuire: gmcguire04@gmail.com.

3) RETREATS. Thanks to the diligent work of the retreat planning committee (Gordy Livermore, Mary Mudd, Leah Rutchick, Howard Staab, and Karen Ziegler), "Dwelling in the Dharma" was held May 26-29 at Avila Retreat Center with teachers Ron Vereen and Jeanne van Gemert.

- Another residential retreat is planned for October 7-9. Streams of Dependently Arising Phenomena Interacting Endlessly, with Leigh Brasington, at Avila Retreat Center. More information is available both in this newsletter and on our website (please scroll down for this event).

4) ADDITIONAL IDEAS are being considered that pertain to our recent exploration of issues around diversity in inclusion in the sangha, end-of-life concerns, and in meeting the ongoing needs of the sangha through developing of Caring Circles.

- Related to diversity, please see the announcement regarding the planned visit of Rev. angel Kodo williams Sensei in this newsletter, and more will be coming on the formation of Caring Circles.
- We have recently been made aware of an organization in Durham whose mission is to build relationships across the lines of privilege, race and class to improve economic stability for everyone. Please check out their website at RealDurham for more information. A training session for those wanting to get involved is currently being planned for August.

If you would like to experience the fruits of service to the sangha, and are not already on the SP member list, please contact Mary at mary@triangleinsight.org. Meetings will be held quarterly, with the next one scheduled for July/August (exact date to be determined).

Organizing Against Racism NC and Dismantling Racism Works Workshops Being Offered

In response to our efforts to engage the Buddhist teachings around the issues of Racial Justice and Diversity, we would like to recommend the training opportunities available through OARNC (Organizing Against Racism NC) or dRworks (Dismantling Racism Works) as a first step in this investigation.

Eighteen of us from Triangle Insight have already participated in these workshops and they come highly recommended, so you are encouraged to participate if interested. If three or more attend an event from our sangha, you will each get a discount on the fee for being a part of the Triangle Insight Meditation Community.

TI is contributing $500 to start a scholarship fund for this purpose, and the community is invited to join the initiative by contributing specifically to the scholarship fund. The fund will be available to support TI community members in attending OARNC, dRworks, or other similar trainings. The goal of the initiative is to help individuals and the community to deepen their understanding of the way the mind and human systems are limited by unexamined views of race. The scholarships will be available on a case by case basis to help supplement the cost of registration. To contribute now through PayPal, please donate here.

Sarah Tillis has graciously volunteered to keep a log of those from our sangha who participate in these trainings, and/or are a member of a Racial Affinity Group. At some point we plan to convene a meeting of this core group of individuals to discuss ideas about the best way forward.

Both OARNC and dRworks offer two phases of training, and the latter trainings are designed to assist us in bringing this knowledge back to our community so as to guide us more skillfully in addressing these issues in Triangle Insight. Please visit their websites by clicking on the links above for descriptions of these phases of training.

Please contact us at info@triangleinsight.org if you:

1) have any questions about this initiative; 2) would like to be considered for a scholarship; 3) want to contribute toward a scholarship; and 4) wish to be a part of the core group to discuss our plans after completing the trainings.

Spiritual Friends Groups

VVV

Having admirable people as friends, companions, and colleagues is actually the whole of the holy life.

~ The Buddha

One of the beautiful gifts of Kalyana Mitta and Racial Affinity groups is the opportunity to practice wise speech with trusted, spiritual friends. In his article, Mindful Speaking, Gil Fronsdal notes that, "Being mindful of what we say is as important as being aware of what goes on in the mind." He discusses the elements of wise speech, the challenges they present, and their benefit to the spiritual path. It is in relationship that we meet our growing edge, and no matter what the topic of discussion, spiritual friends groups can provide a safe space for opening to the challenges and deepening our ability to speak mindfully. As Fronsdal reminds us, we cannot awaken alone, and to foster our own and others' spiritual growth, "Speak so you become each other's companion on the journey."

Kalyana Mitta Groups

There are openings in three KM groups: Insight Dialogue, the Durham Meditation Collective (for individuals aged 24-36), and the Raleigh KM group. There are waiting lists for two groups: Buddhism for a Secular Age and Chapel Hill-Carrboro. A Year to Live KM Group is now closed; if there is interest, we can work with you to begin a second group. Details about all these groups are on our website.

If you would like to join a group that's open, be on a waiting list or start a new group, please send the KM-RA Questionnaire to Sarah Tillis, KM Coordinator. For more information about any of our KM Groups, please talk with Sarah, visit our KM web page or email Sarah at sarah@triangleinsight.org.

Racial Affinity Groups

We currently have openings in the Chapel Hill-Carrboro RA group. As noted on our website, our Racial Affinity Groups are open to those who participate in the Triangle Insight Meditation Community and also to committed Buddhist practitioners who attend another sangha. These groups are an outgrowth of our sangha and are integrated with our dharma talks, practice, and study. This integration helps deepen connection among group members and the sangha as a whole, and participation in Triangle Insight is a valuable part of this process. Those who attend another sangha and join one of our Racial Affinity groups might find it beneficial to experience our teachers and sangha, and they're welcome to attend Triangle Insight on Wednesday evening as convenient.

Information about our RA groups and a list of resources are on our Racial Affinity Groups web page. If you have questions or suggestions, please talk to Sarah Tillis, KM Coordinator, or email her at sarah@triangleinsight.org.

The KM Coordinating Team of Sarah Tillis, Tamara Share, Tom Howlett, and Jeanne van Gemert feels deep gratitude for the dedication of our sangha. May our Kalyana Mitta and Racial Affinity groups be of great benefit to all.

The Practice of Insight Dialogue at Triangle Insight

Insight Dialogue is an interpersonal meditation practice and is offered at Triangle Insight once monthly, usually on the fourth Wednesday of the month. It brings the mindfulness and tranquility of silent meditation directly into our experience with other people. The new website for Insight Dialogue is an excellent resource for learning more about the practice: www.metta.org.

The evening begins with silent meditation practice, followed by gentle mindful movement, and then shifting into dyad practice where interpersonal mindfulness is explored with a partner in response to a contemplation that is offered. The dyad practice is optional so that anyone who chooses to remain in silent practice may do so, rather than shifting into dyad practice. One can investigate the guidance of the contemplation internally, noticing the moment by moment unfolding of internal experience. Also note that the ID practice goes from 6:30 to 8:30 PM to allow for more spaciousness and time for questions. We hope you will be able to join us.

Sutta Study Group

Facilitated by Steve Seiberling

The Eno River Buddhist Community will be restarting a sutta study group this fall, meeting on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays of each month beginning September 22nd. The group focuses on studying teachings found in the Sutta Piṭaka. We are especially interested in understanding what the suttas have to teach us, rather than using the texts selectively to confirm our existing beliefs or ideas about practice. For more information, please contact Steve Seiberling at smseiberling@gmail.com or visit the Groups page of their web site.

Other Resources

In addition to Triangle Insight, there are a variety of other meditation opportunities of which we would like for you to be aware. Rather than list them all here, we wanted to point you to the "links" section of our website at Triangle Insight. There are other sitting groups in the community whose practice is similar to ours, as well as resources for retreat centers and other websites, both locally and nationally. We do not offer an endorsement of these sites, but rather a suggestion for your exploration to see if any may have useful information to support your practice of insight meditation.
