Happy Summer to all -

We are taking a hiatus from our current exploration of the Noble Eightfold Path in order to use this space in our newsletter to express our deep appreciation for our dear teacher and spiritual friend, Cynthia Hughey. At the May 26th meeting of the sangha, Cynthia announced that she would be taking a sabbatical from her teaching responsibilities at Triangle Insight on Wednesday evenings in order to devote more time to personal practice and rejuvenation. This decision was not made in haste, coming after months of continual reflection and inquiry, which included conversations with family and spiritual friends. Her announcement was preceded by a thought-provoking and illuminating talk on the topic of such inquiry, and her typical clarity, compassion, and lightness of heart was evident to all in attendance.

Cynthia’s many years of devotion to the study and practice of the teachings of the Buddha has not only been apparent in her leadership of the sangha, but also in her contributions to the inception, formation, and evolution of Triangle Insight over the years. Although her guidance will be sorely missed at our regular meetings on Wednesdays, she assures us that she will continue to be an integral part of the sangha, mentioning several ways in which this may unfold going forward. Having reflected a great deal on the value of silence and stillness for herself, Cynthia has offered to lead us in days of practice in which these qualities will serve as the focal point for investigation. In addition, she will remain on the Board of Directors of Triangle Insight and continue to offer her wisdom and guidance in matters related to the further evolution and development of the sangha. In reference to this, she, along with Jeanne and Ron, will be attending the Ruth King workshop, “Mindful of Race,” at the Insight Meditation Community of Charlottesville in August, and will be exploring ways to bring this work more deeply into our own community.

So, please join us in our expression of deep gratitude to Cynthia for her contributions to the leadership and stewardship of the Triangle Insight Meditation Community, and in wishing her well in her continued study and practice of the Dharma. May all of her efforts continue to bear great fruit, both for her and for all beings.

With deep bows,
Phyllis Hicks, Jeanne van Gemert, and Ron Vereen

Wednesday Evenings
Save the Date!
Triangle Insight is Turning Six

This July marks the sixth birthday of the Triangle Insight Meditation Community, and on Wednesday, July 29th, we plan to celebrate with a special meeting! We will gather at 6:30 PM for our 45 min. period of meditation, and then have an opportunity for more intimate sharing with each other as we devote the remainder of the evening’s meeting to exploring how the Dharma has been unfolding in our lives, as well as how sangha has been important in that evolution. Following that will be our birthday celebration, so please bring a sweet or savory dish to share with the group. Triangle Insight will provide the beverages and birthday cake!

No matter how long you have been attending Triangle Insight, even if only for a short time, all are welcome to attend this celebration.

Love, Sexuality and Awakening: A Women's Retreat
with Ajahn Thanasanti and Sharon Beckman-Brindley

This Insight Dialogue retreat offers teachings, contemplations, and practice on various facets of love as aspects of a path of awakening. The English word "love" includes a broad range of experience, from friendliness, to kindness, and compassion for self and others, to romantic sexual involvement, to the desire and ability to release our masks of self and other, to rest in shared interconnection. Ultimately, simply resting in love, we can embody an unconditional presence that has no expectations or demand and we find a love that is a quality of our being, rather than something to be constructed or longed for.

. . . This retreat is suitable for anyone self identified as a woman who has a regular meditation practice and has done a 7-day mindfulness retreat.

Insight Dialogue and the Path of Peace with Sharon Beckman-Brindley and Phyllis Hicks

In this retreat, we will practice silent meditation and Insight Dialogue, allowing our hearts and minds to open unconditionally to our life experience. We will cultivate qualities of mind that give rise to clarity and peace. As awareness deepens, we can experience directly the profound Buddhist teachings on suffering and the end of suffering.

Consider the Conversation
An Evening with Betsy Barton

Please join us on August 12th for a screening of the film, Consider the Conversation: A Documentary About a Taboo Subject. Afterwards, we'll follow up with a discussion facilitated by Betsy about the issues raised in the film.

The documentary tells an intimate story about the American struggle with communication and preparation at life's end. It contains the perspectives of patients, family members, doctors, nurses, social workers, clergy, and national experts from around the country. The goal of this film is to inspire dialogue -- so let's get started! For more information, please visit their website, ConsidertheConversation.org.

Betsy Barton is currently a participant in the first two-year Heavenly Messengers Program at Spirit Rock Meditation Center. She conducts trainings nationally for congregations of all faiths about illness, end of life, caregiving and grief.

Kalyana Mitta Groups

Having admirable people as friends, companions, and colleagues is actually the whole of the holy life.
~ The Buddha

The recent Wednesday evening dharma talks on intention stimulated rich discussion and inspiration for further exploration. A wonderful article by Thanissaro Bhikkhu points out that the Buddha's instructions for refining intention include two essential approaches. One is "appropriate attention," and the other is "friendship with admirable people - associating with and learning from people who are virtuous, generous, and wise." It was a longing in our community for just these kinds of friendships that led to the creation of our Kalyana Mitta groups. These small groups of spiritual friends allow the development of intimacy and trust, members can share openly and deeply, and the heart of the dharma is enriched in our practice and our daily lives.

Over forty individuals have expressed interest in participating, and two groups, Durham and Chapel-Hill-Carrboro, are currently full. We still have openings in two groups, Raleigh and Insight Dialogue, and both are planning their first meetings. Joe Gilbert has generously agreed to be the group organizer for Raleigh. Details about all our groups can be found in our List of KM Groups. Our Kalyana Mitta web page has helpful information about how to start or join a KM Group, guidelines for group development and mindful sharing, and other useful resources. If you're interested in joining or organizing a KM group, or you have questions or suggestions, please contact Sarah Tillis, KM Coordinator, at sarah@triangleinsigh.org.

The development of the KM program is heartwarming, and the coordinating team of Jeanne van Gemert, Tom Howlett, Tamara Share, and Sarah Tillis welcome your input. May our Kalyana Mitta groups be of great benefit to all.

Buddhist Insight Network
Database Designer-Administrator

Still Seeking Applications

The Buddhist Insight Network is excited to have the opportunity to create an online Retreat Listing, the next generation of Inquiring Mind's listing. We are seeking one or more Drupal application developers with expertise in databases and user experience design.

Specifically the designer-administrator(s) will coordinate with the current database designer and administrator to:

- Implement the backend retreat database
- Create a user database of people authorized to edit entries
- Design the user experience, and
- Implement the user interface in Drupal, in coordination with our administrator
- Deploy to the test environment

The Buddhist Insight Network is a hub for the Insight Meditation movement, serving to connect and offer resources to sanghas, teachers, and individual practitioners

If interested, contact Kim Allen: buddhistinsightnetwork@gmail.com (subject line -- Retreat Database)

This project will begin in spring 2015 and will ideally take 6 months or less.

The Practice of Insight Dialogue at Triangle Insight

Insight Dialogue is an interpersonal meditation practice and is offered at Triangle Insight once monthly, usually on the fourth Wednesday of the month. It brings the mindfulness and tranquility of silent meditation directly into our experience with other people. The new website for Insight Dialogue is an excellent resource for learning more about the practice: www.metta.org.

The evening begins with silent meditation practice, followed by gentle mindful movement, and then shifting into dyad practice where interpersonal mindfulness is explored with a partner in response to a contemplation that is offered. The dyad practice is optional so that anyone who chooses to remain in silent practice may do so, rather than shifting into dyad practice. One can investigate the guidance of the contemplation internally, noticing the moment by moment unfolding of internal experience. Also note that the ID practice goes from 6:30 to 8:30 PM to allow for more spaciousness and time for questions. We hope you will be able to join us.

The Shramadana Project at Triangle Insight

The Shramadana Project (SP) is a volunteer initiative of the Triangle Insight Meditation Community that has been organized to address some of the needs within the sangha, as well as to provide outreach to the community-at-large. At the most recent meeting, Mary Mudd agreed to be the current coordinator of the SP, and others joined her in forming a Retreat Planning Committee, including Dave Durham, Gordy Livermore, Leah Rutchick, Kathy Shipp, and Howard Staab, with Cathy Cole as a registration consultant. Deep bows to all!

Ron Vereen recently completed a second Mindfulness Awareness Training at the Durham Crisis Response Center, assisted by Daya Breckinridge, Paula Huffman, and Tamara Share. So far the feedback from the DCRC and clients has been positive. It is our intention to offer this class on an ongoing basis for their clients who are survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault and childhood trauma, and the more people involved, the more classes we can provide.

If you have some experience in teaching mindfulness to others and would like to participate, please contact Ron at ron@triangleinsight.org

Please consider being involved in the SP in some fashion, large or small. If interested, you may contact Mary Mudd at mary@triangleinsight.org.

Goings-on in the Sangha

This space is where sangha members may announce timely activities for everyone to view, such as study groups, social gatherings, and any classes or other events that you consider relevant to the mission of our sangha.

If you would like to include something, please submit your request by the 20th of each month to info@triangleinsight.org.

Other Resources

In addition to Triangle Insight, there are a variety of other meditation opportunities of which we would like for you to be aware. Rather than list them all here, we wanted to point you to the "links" section of our website at Triangle Insight. There are other sitting groups in the community whose practice is similar to ours, as well as resources for retreat centers and other websites, both locally and nationally. We do not offer an endorsement of these sites, but rather a suggestion for your exploration to see if any may have useful information to support your practice of insight meditation.

For any questions please contact us at info@triangleinsight.org
